Defendant.)

ENTRY

The plaintiff's motion to give order [98] requests that the court order that he be moved from administrative segregation to the general population. He believes he is being held in administrative segregation because he filed this lawsuit. It appears that through this motion the plaintiff is attempting to assert a new due process claim in this action. See Marion v. Radtke, 641 F.3d 874, 875-76 (7th Cir. 2011). Such a claim has no factual or legal connection to the remaining claim and does not belong in this case. Accordingly, his motion to give order [98] is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
